

Garden Minutes 7:30pm

President's Report

- Thank you for the turn out on Saturday!
- Sunday: Mu Lambda Rho came and weeded
 - Bringing a thank you card on Saturday to sign
- Jamison Center to pick up harvest soon
- Continue to spread and emphasize that people need to talk to the crew before anyone picks anything
- Questions on working during the week
 - if interested, we'll talk on Saturdays or Tuesdays
 - we just need to keep in touch

VP's Report

- No report

Treasurer's Report

- talking to Watson about budgets

Bees and Honey

- in touch with Vivian

Public Outreach

- No Report

Research

- No Report

6 Acre Mini Farm

- No Report

Old Business

- Pesto Party
 - Moved to early October
 - most likely to be held in Nutrition Lab in CSB

New Business

- Saturday
 - weeding blueberries, asparagus, and strawberries
 - primarily at the farm
 - harvesting and weeding
 - apples ready to harvest
 - to the Jamison Center and potentially to preserve them depending on the amount harvested
 - Seed blocking
 - some are ready to be put in the ground
 - beets, arugula, cauliflower, broccoli, and turnips
 - will be starting after the regular time slot
 - so if you want to help out with planting, stay after on Saturday
- Professor Johnston's wife Betsy offered to teach us how to preserve
 - will most likely be held in Nutrition Lab
 - Bota in contact with Betsy to set up potential dates

Tuesday, September 8, 2015

- Professors Engstrom handed out fliers for an educational opportunity
 - Borlaug 101: Fundamentals of Global Food Security Conference
 - October 14-16 in Des Moines, Iowa
 - for more information contact Prof Engstrom